NatRoad Connect 24

ISA Workforce Strategy

Camilla Elmes

Industry Engagement Manager – Transport & Logistics

Industry Skills Australia

JSC Jobs and Skills Council Transport and Logistics An Australian Government Initiative

Industry Skills Australia | NATROAD

Setting the scene

1. Industry Skills Australia
2. 2024 Workforce Plan
3. Current & Planned Activities

Who we are and what we do

Industry Stewardship

Workforce Planning

Workforce Solutions

Implementation, Promotion & Monitoring

Transport & Logistics Workforce Plan 2024

SCAN ME

Truck Driver Overview

47% of Truck Drivers are Over 50 Years Old

46.9 Years, is the Average Age of a Truck Driver

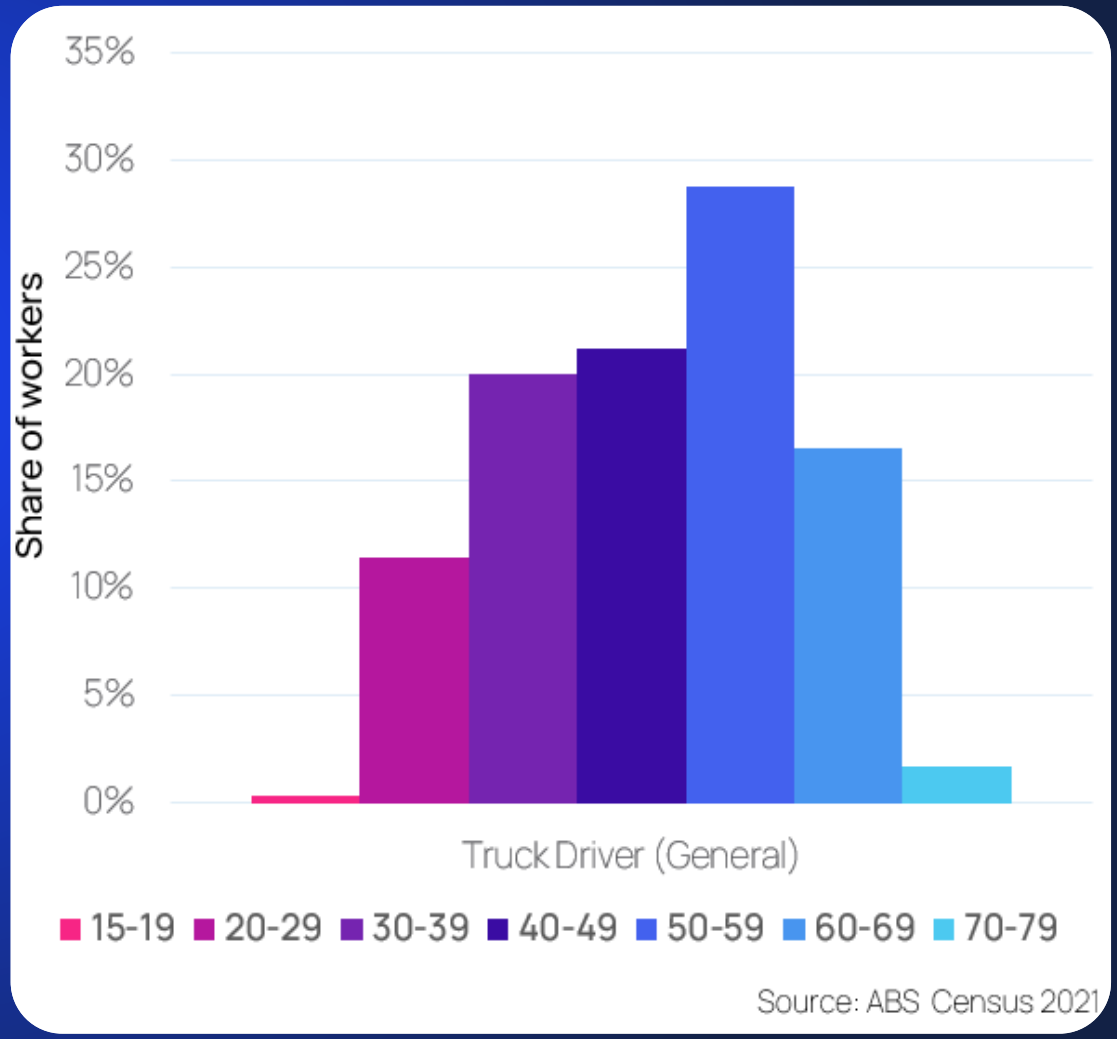
186K Truck Drivers in 2024

5.2% Female Truck Drivers

0.84% Differently abled Truck Drivers

3.43% First Nations Truck Drivers



Mega Trends

Digital Technology & Automation

Decarbonisation

Workforce Supply Challenges, Diversity and Inclusion

Skills Development

Key Challengers & Drivers

- Attraction & Retention
- Heavy Vehicle Driver Shortages
- The Importance of Compliance
- Shortages of Trainers and Assessors
- Skills Gaps in Emerging Industries

Have Your Say

SCAN ME

Current and Planned Activities

Industry Skills Australia is commencing a program of work across its industries to help build a resilient, highly skilled, and world class supply chain workforce.

Improving Transport and Logistics Career Information Project

Furniture Removal Project

Motor Vehicle Driver Training Project

Qualification Reform Demonstration Project

Omni-Channel Logistics Skills Gap Analysis Project

16 Transport & Logistics Preliminary Research & Consultation

How to Get Involved

SCAN ME

Find Out More & Reach Out

camilla.elmes@isajsc.org.au

0484 821 888

Industry Skills Australia